Parish youth let down by Two Rivers Housing as they withdraw from Skate Park ground works.

Resident concerned over possible post office closure. Parish Council eager to maintain service in village.

Tree survey shows no drastic action needed.

A report carried out by B J Unwin Forestry Consultancy of all the trees bordering the dog walking track reveals that the condition of most of the trees is very good. Some young trees need formative pruning and some require some minor works over the next twelve months.

*Grass cutting contracts awarded.
Let the clerk know if there are any problems with the cut in your area.*

Art at the ASHA Centre

The purpose of the creative afternoons is to offer artists and novices, an opportunity to work together in the glorious gardens down near St Antony's Well.

There will be an Open Day on 30th June at which participants may like to display work inspired by the ASHA Centre environment - and art work will be shown as part of the Forest and Wye Valley Open Studios trail. Dates - 5th and 19th May, 30th June (ASHA Open Day) and Open Studios Sundays (14th and 21st July 11 - 5pm)

For further details call Claire on 01594 544764, or email claire-andrachel@hotmail.com
